- Advanced Microsoft office skills
- Excellent proficiency in Excel
- High standard of numeracy and literacy
- Understanding of basic statistical concepts
- Excellent attention to detail and the ability to check calculations and formulate confidently and amend as needed.
- Fast Learner
- Ability to meet tight deadlines
- Multi-tasking skills

Desirable Skills

- Knowledge of corporate governance
- Good communication skills
- Some level of basic programming skills, VBA, SQL
- Knowledge of Microsoft Access
- The candidate should have an intuitive and critical mindset
- He/she should possess a high level of integrity and professionalism

In return, for successful candidates, we offer a competitive salary package and the opportunity to develop your career in a growing organisation.

Interviews will be held in December for a January start date at our premises in the Docklands.
